commissioners may be acaled down some-what from the fact that I have included in orts certain misdemeanor which the statutes may shall not be paid to the clerk except by consent of the county commencers. Heretofore these fees had been paid to my predecessor, Captain ljams, but it remains for the county commissioners to say whether they will pay them to me or not. I included them in my reports so as to bring them before the commissioners for action, and should they see fit to refuse them then I have recourse to the law to ascertain whether or not I am compelled to pay out of my own pocket for clerks for this class of business without any renumeration whatever.

PREPARING A REPORT. "I have for the last year employed one of y clerks at an expense of $100 a month make up a detailed report which I could present to the county commissioners of all moneys remaining in my bands, with a statement to whom these moneys are due, and had it not been for the unfortunate sickhad it not been for the unfortunate sick-ness of Mr. Palmquist, the clerk, who has been in the hospital since January 15, this statement would have been completed. He had, up to the time he was taken sick, gotten through with over thirty-seven of the dockets. There still remain seventeen more. and when this work is done I will be ready to present to the commissioners my report, effect a settlement and withdraw the balance due me, which will amount to a con-siderable sum, from the county. In other words. I have $5 due me for every dollar that owe the county of Doug as.

"There never has been a legitimate demand made on me for any moneys that I owed that has not been promptly met and paid. During my official career I paid the highest salaries to my deputies and clerks that were paid either in the county or city lature had increased the salaries of the buildings, and none of my employes can say that his or her salary was not paid promptly on the first of every month.

is charged that I have embezzled money from the city. I have never handled any of the city's money and have collected no claims for the city. The fact is, and City Attorney Connell will verify the statethat I have valid claims against the city today amounting to over $3,500. As to my robbing the school children of Omaha and taking the patrimony of the schools. I simply point to the fact that whatever claim the school board may have against the county is collectible from the county under my bond. If the court shall decide that the unclaimed witness fees are payable directly to the school board they will be cheerfully paid, but I insist that the amount shall be deducted from what the county owes m and the county can afterward settle with the school board whenever the lawyers can agree upon the proper amount, or the courts decide what it shall be. Beecher Higby, candidate for city clerk made an interesting talk of five minutes Though not an old soldier, he was well received also, and was assured of hearty sup port on April 20. He was followed briefly by another comrade. Police Judge Gordon who merely stated in a modest way that he was a candidate for re-election. Major Milpaign and emphasized the need of old solbanding themselves together for the support and election of Frank E. Moores and the entire republican ticket.

ENTHUSIASM IN THE NINTH WARD City Attorney Connell and Others

Make Vigorous Speeches. The campaign in the western part of the city was opened by the republicans last night with a meeting in the Ninth ward, at Twenty-ninth and Farnam streets, in the room of the Ninth Ward Republican club. The meeting had not been decided upon until some twelve hours before it was held and had not been advertised, but, nevertheless, there was a fair attendance of the republican voters of the ward present. The gathering was was turned over to A. H. Burnett as chair-

Attorney W. J. Connell, who began by stating that he had been a strong Broatch man, but like all good republicans, was willing to support Frank E. Moores since the conven-tion had declared him to be its choice for mayor. He then proceeded to show that the present campaign had been forced upon the as the result of a political intrigue by which the regularly elected Douglas county state representatives and Senator Evans had been kicked out of their seats to put in popufusion nomination for mayor. This conspiracy was cloaked beneath the passage of the new charter, which was alleged to be a saving measure, but which, the speaker stated, would be found to be more expensive than the old one when the taxpayers came to foot the bills for the coming election and for the new offices created. Mr. Connell also showed that in their efforts to get the new charter passed, the Douglas county popocratic leg'slators had been outrageously direlict in their duty to secure a proper exposition ap-

Mr. Connell referred in high terms to Frank Moores, spenking from his experience him for years as an attorney while Moores was clerk of the district court. He spoke of him as being whole-souled, open-handed and generous. He said that Moores had done no more than take what fees he had been entitled to. He stated that the suits that had been brought against Moores were commenced when he was being fought on the occasion of his running for the district court cleriship again. Since that time all these suits had been wiped out. Some of them Moores had won. Finally Moores had written a letter to the county authorities, re-questing that three judges be selected to act as arbitrators in a settlement between himself and the county. In conclusion, Mr. Connell stated that Moores was entitled to royal sup-

ARRAIGNING HOWELL. A. C. Troup, who has known Howell for years, stated that the fusion candidate had in his judgment forfeited his right to any vote because he had plainly violated his oath in because he had plantly record showed unseating Evans. Howell's record showed that he had used greater efforts to secure the passage of the new charter by which he expected to secure the election as mayor than he did to get an exposition appropriation. The first daily Mr. Trough them made tion, his first duty. Mr. Troup then made vigorous arraignment of a contemporary of fees that have been filed with the county editor in the mudslinging campaign he has operated from all charges of dishousaty in inaugurated against Moores.

"He charges acts that are slanderous falsehoods," said Mr. Troup, "and he ought to be made to eat them. Some twenty suits were begun against Moores in a political cam-If anything of a criminal nature have been found against Moores it could have been discovered in these cases. Moores met every one of them and they all ended in ignominious faiture. Colonel Redfield then? His silence at that ime, when he was in possession of any he claims he has now, shows that he is no overburdened with honesty in the statement he has made. Not a single man dares charge truthfully that Moores is a defaulter or that he ever took a cent that the statutes of the state did not give him.

Mr. Troup also referred to the charge that Moores was not a church man. He stated that there was not a church association whose books did not show that Moores was one of its beneficiaries. There was not a charitable institution that had not receive assistance from him; not a man in want had ever been turned away by him without re celving aid. Harry C. Brome vigorously arraigned the reco d Howell has made in the legislature. He stated that the city charter had been lic, but because of Howell's ambition to hold office. In the furtherance of this ambition Hewell had helped to unseat regularly elected republican legislators in plain vilation of his oath. Mr. Brome contended, therefore, that the issue of the campaign was whether votes should be counted as the mayor and councilmen, the offices they se cured on the fusion ticket, and had reduced the remainder. He also spoke of the prospect of the ring rule through the fire and police board that threatened the city in the event of a fusion victory. As evidence of this he instanced the fact that one of the members of the new board, and the chairman of the democratic city central committee, a saloon keeper, were working together for the fusion ticket. If another democrat in the shape of the mayor was added to the police board the popocrats would use the police board as a club to control elections

At the conclusion of these speakers a num ber of the republican candidates spoke Among these were Fred J. Sackett, I. S Gordon, Beecher Higby, W. W. Bingham John N. Westberg, Tom Crocker and A. G. Edwards. Just before adjournment it was decided to hold another meeting during the early part of next week.

WORKING NOW FOR SUCCESS. Friends of a Good City Governmen

Unite to Fight Fusion. The republican headquarters in the Hell man block were opened for the campaign yesterday and from now until after the election one or more of the officers of the city central committee will be in charge to attend to all matters connected with the campaign. The schedule of republican meetings has been partially laid out and nearly all the best speakers of the party have volunteered to make one or more speeches dur ing the two weeks before election. neetings will be well distributed between the various wards and the people will be given an opportunity thoroughly to under stand the issue that confronts them before they go to the polls. One of the most encouraging indications the rapidity with which those republicans who were defeated at the primaries are get ting into line in support of the ticket. The primary fight and the proceedings in the convention were hotly contested and Monday there were many republicans who had not entirely forgotten the animosities of the contest. But since then their sentiments have undergone a radical change and there very few republicans who are not giving the entire ticket their enthusiastic support. number of city hall officials and others wh fought desperately for Broatch at the primaries and who were very much chagrined at his defeat are now working for Moore and the other republican candidates as hard as they worked for their first choice.

This is a decided back-set to the hopes of the popocratic managers who had based their expectation of success on the assumption that the hot primary fight would result in enough defections from the republican ranks to allow their ticket to win by default. But the renot be the case. Outside of a few mal have been brought together and the part; will present a united front to the nondescrip battalion that proposes to march from the state house to the city hall, During the last few days the rank and file of the party have begun to appreciate the situation as it is. They realize that if a democratic mayor can be elected with five councilmen to back him the city governmen will be at his mercy for at least three years. During that time, with absolute con trol of every department, he will be able to build up a political machine that migh prove as dangerous as the Tammany Hall of New York City. They understand that in the event of Howell's election the city offices would be filled with his satellites and that the taxpayers would be powerless in the hands of a ring which represents the worst element of the democratic party. The new officials would not even be subject to the check of public opinion, for, with their long term of service and the absolute control of a powerful machine, they would be able o defy public opinion. The popocratic managers have headquarters. They are located on Fifteenti street, next to the postoffice, and Police Commissioner Lee Herdman will have general charge of the campaign. The time for filing petitions by independent candidates will expire Saturday and it is likely that there will be several independent candidates for the council. Richard O' Malley and Sol Prince are out as independent republican candidates from the Third ward and it is said that Henry Richards may become an independent candidate on the fusion side Henry C. Betterman of the Sixth ward, who has several times been a candidate at the republican primaries, is also announced as an independent candidate.

The talk of the independent candidate for mayor seems to be without result. Mayor Broatch said yesterday that he did not propose to come out, although he said he had been urged to do so. When he was asked if he would support Mr. Moores he declined to commit himself, saying that he did not expect to have anything to do with the fight

REPUBLICANS OF FIRST WARD. Young Men's Club Holds a Rousing

Meeting at Schroth's Hall. A large and enthusiastic meeting was held last night at Schroth's hall by the Young Men's Republican club of the First ward. The club was formerly know as the Grand View Republican club, but has been reorganized with a membership of over 100. Peter Boisen took the chair, with Frank Wooley as secretary. It was expected that Frank E. Moores would be present, but just before order was called for, his regrets were re-ceived, stating, however, that he hoped to be present at the next mass meeting of the club, which will take place at Forest hall, Friday night. Of the city candidates, John Westberg and A. G. Edwards were present and delivered short speeches, in which they asked the support of the members in the

J. J. Boucher next took the floor. He made an address which was received with frequent cheers. Mr. Boucher reviewed the public life of Mr. Moores, and told of the many kind-hearted acts which he had known him to perform during a period of six months in which he had worked under Mr. Moores in his office in the county building. The speaker said in connection with the attacks made upon the ex-clerk of the district court, that while he was in the office, he had never known of an overcharge in fees, that in all the instances the fees had been assessed according to rules provided by static and the cording to rules provided by statute and that nearly all of them were assessed and collected by the clerks in the office. The speaker denied that there had existed any irrgularities in the collection of fees and challenged irrgularities in the collection of fees and challenged any person attempting to question Mr. Moores' honesty, to show that such was the case. The speaker stated that there was nearly $20,000 due at the present time on Mr. Moores' books which had not been collected. He also showed that in the thirty-five cases brought by persons who alleged they had been overcharged in the transaction of legal business with the office of the clerk of the district court, that all of them had been discharged when brought to trist, that the amounts charged by Mr. Moores had been sanctioned in every case by the judge, and that he had been completely ex-

In relation to the charges against Me Moores lately published in a local sheet over the aignature of the county clerk speaker said it seemed strange that should not have discovered the alleged short-ages of his superior before and proclaimed them to the public. He would by so doin have possibly proved a public benefactor a that time, but by doing so at this late date it would appear that he wished to make olitical capital out of a mass of fabrications The speaker was of the opinion that the county clerk was trying to burn the bridges of his party behind him and was looking for personal benefits in the future from a party which he hoped would be in power. In con clusion Mr. Boucher stated that the alleged expose of crookedness in the transaction of business by the ex-clerk of the district court was a mass of lies, circulated by unprincipled persons to influence voters who knew nothing of the truth.

Charles E. Winters spoke along the same lines and was followed in short addresses by Charles Schroth, William Peterson and Richard O'Malley.

Populist Committee Meets. There was a full attendance at last night's meeting of the populist city central committee. Louis Ihm presided and Mr. Nelson acted as secretary. Herman Cohen was unanimously elected treasurer of the committee for the coming campaign. A committee of five was chosen to confer with similar committees from the free silver republicans and democrats. There was a disussion of ways and means of conducting the campaign. Committees on speakers and meetings were appointed. The meeting was the | behind closed doors.

Colored Men Endorse Moores. The colored waiters and porters of the city met last night at 111 South Fifteenth street and passed resolutions endorsing Frank E. Moores for mayor. They also appointed an executive committee composed of John Betts, head waiter at the Paxton; J. H. Weser and W. L. Singleton, to secure permanent quar-

South Omaha News THE PERSON SERVICE SERVICE SERVICE

The result of the election Tuesday completely changed the political complexion of the city council. For a year from April 12 the council will be made up of six republicans and two democrats. As Sam Mort of the Fourt ward was elected by republican votes it is expected that he will vote and work with the republicans. If he does this Caldwell will be the only democrat left to represent his party.

All day yesterday the successful candidates were being congratulated by their friends and supporters, while the few democrats who were brave enough to crawl out of their holes and show themselves on the streets put in the time trying to explain how it all happened. Various solutions were offered, but the one most generally credited was that the taxpayers had become tired of the old combination and determined to break it. This was rejoicing among the better class of people. In spite of all kinds of slanderous reports circulated by disgruntled democrats, Kelly won in the First ward over Walters by a

Mies lost fully fifty votes on account of the mayor having removed Tom Kelly as clerk of election. The mayor took this step last Monday night and gave as his reason for Kelly's removal that he had learned that Kelly had bet money on the result. After Kelly had been notified of his removal he went among his friends and told of the treatment he had received at the hands of a democratic mayor, with the result that Barrett received nearly all of the Irish votes cast in Another thing that lost Mies lots of votes was the way the Bohemians had been treated. Many of them felt that Franck was entitled second term and that he had been tricked out of the nomination, consequently they either voted for Barrett or did not go o the polls at all. Ryan lays his defeat to the fact that Hyland was running and took a portion of the democratic vote from him. Hyland expected to pull through on the strength of his having O street, but he did not expect that his reso-Q street, but he did not expect that his reso-lution offered in the council closing the via-duct and taking off the motor car would react the way it did. When the people of the ward found that they were compelled to walk just because Hyland tried to force the republican members of the council to agree to the letting of the contract for the viaduct repairs to the highest justead of the lowest bidder they turned against him and voted for Trainor Mullaly of the Fourth ward has been making enemies for some months past, and the opposition to him took definite shape when Tom Gillespie, a former supporter, came out solid for Mort and worked day and night for him. Gillespie has a great deal of influence in the ward, and added to this the disreputable tactics employed by Mullaly caused a turning of the tide in favor of the Englishman.

Councilman Billy Bennett of the Third ward is tickled to death over the result, as it will give him an opportunity to get even with Caldwell for a remark made by the latter at a meeting of the council not long ago. Bennett wanted some crosswalks fixed up so that the school children would not have to wade through the mud in going and returning from their lessons. After he had made his wants known Caldwell arose and addressing Mr. Bennett gave him to stand that the democrats were in the majority in the council and consequently were not compelled to pay any attention to the wants of the republican members. "What we do give you," said Caldwell, "we give you just out of sympathy." Bennett is now telling the boys to just watch him hand it back to Caldwell at the first good opportunity. There is another good election story going the rounds which shows how tricky some candidates can be when they try. Not a thousand years ago a democrat was running for member of the city council in the Third ward. It so happened that he had not sufficient wealth to purchase title to a piece of real estate, the law requiring every coun-cilman to be a property owner. One of this man's friends was long on property, but short on good sense, and promptly deeded to the candidate a lot with the understanding that the title was to be transferred back immediately after election. The day after election the real owner of the lot called ipon the candidate and asked that a deed e made out. There was some hesitation on the part of the candidate, and it developed that during the short time the lot had been n possession of the aspirant for political ors he had placed a $200 mortgage on This mortgage the real owner had to satisfy before he again came into possession

By the addition of two republican members of the Board of Education that body now has seven republican members and two democratic members. With one or two ex ceptions the members are all business men and some much needed reforms are expected.

Doubt About the School Bonds.

Several attorneys in the city assert that the proposition to vote $15,000 in bonds to pay for improvements to school houses did not carry at the recent election for the reason that the proposition did not receive a majority of all the votes cast. Out of 1472 otes cast upon the proposition only 871 were in favor of the issue, while 2,387 votes were cast for councilmen. Attorneys say that the statutes provide that in order to carry a bond proposition a majority of all the votes cast at a general election is necessary.

SENATE BNUBS GOVERNOR

Declines to Page a Bill Urgently Recommended in His Message.

SHOWS SOME SENSATIONAL STUBBORNNESS

House Roll Enlarging the Powers of the State Board of Transportation feilled and Then Resurrefrd and Passed.

LINCOLN, April 7 .- (Special.) - The proceedings of the senate today were from a political standpoint sensational in the highest degree. Two bitls vitally affecting the railroad interests of the state were placed on their final passage and defeated by populist and fusion votes. In the interim between the forenoon and afternoon sessions the whole power of the populist party machinery was set in motion. Every argument that could be advanced by the party leaders was brought to bear on the recalcitrant members. When the senate reconvened after recess it reconsidered its action by which one of the bills was defeated and after a scene of confusion and excitement seldom witnessed in legislative bodies it was again placed on its final passage and passed. The bill which created the excitement was one introduced in the house on February 8 by Representative Zimmerman of York county and was one of the laws recommended by Governor Holcomb in his inaugural message. In that message the gov-ernor said: "I am of opinion that our Board of Transportation laws may greater powers and more latitude in the operation of the board in the enforcement of the law, thereby assuring a better administration of this important feature of state government." Again the governor said: "If the board has not sufficient authority as now constituted to fulfil the objects of its creation, the law should amended so as to give it more extended ESSENCE OF THE TROUBLE. The provisions of the bill passed today under such sensational circumstances are drastic in the extreme. The whole tenor of the new law is to compel railroad companies to render prompt compliance with the orders made by the State Board of Transportation. The first section of the bill goes to the heart of the whole matter. It provides

The first section of the bill goes to the heart of the whole matter, It provides:

That in case any common carrier subject to the provisions of this act cause to be done or permit to be done any act, matter or thing in this act prohibited or declared to be unlawful, or shall omit to do any act, matter or thing in this act required to be done, or shall fail to comply with the order of the board within ten days from the date of the service of a copy of such order, such common carrier shall pay the state of Nebraska a penalty of not less than $500 nor more than $5,000. Such penalty shall be recovered and suits thereon shall be brought in the name of the state of Nebraska in the proper court having jurisdiction thereof in any county to or through which such railroad may run, by the attorney general or under his direction; and the attorney bringing such suit shall receive a fee of $50 for each penalty recovered and collected by him and 10 per cent of the amount collected, to be paid by the state; and such railroad company shall be liable to the person or persons injured thereby for the full amount of damages sustained in consequence of any such violations of the provisions of this act, together with a reasonable counsel or attorney's fee to be fixed by the court in every case of recovery, which attorney's fee shall be taxed and collected as a part of the case of recovery, which attorney's fee shall be taxed and collected as a part of the costs in the case

When the bill was placed on its final passage the senate was a scene of confusion The roll was called and the bill received sixteen affirmative votes. Every expedient was resorted to to secure the seventeenth vote necessary, but without avail. On the other hand filteen senators had voted against the bill. The absent sonators were Mr. Far-rell of Merrick county, and Mr. Grothan of Howard. A call of the house was ordered and the doors were closed. Mr. Howell, of las, made made to pass the bill. The senator from Omaha said time was too valuable to permit of it being frittered away. It was evi dent, he declared, that the bill could no pass, and he asked permission to change his vote from aye to no. Senators Gondring Beal and other friends of the measure protested and Mr. Ransom ruled that no mem ber could change his vote while the senate was under call.

"Then, Mr. President," shouted Howell, "! serve notice right here that I propose to change my vote from aye to no as soon as the call is raised.'

GROTHAN VOTED NAY. Mr. Talbot moved that the call be raised and after one or two votes had been taken on the proposition the call was raised and the doors opened. Mr. Grothan, of Howard appeared and voted against the bill. This left the vote standing 16 to 16. Not another vote could be secured, and the bill was de clared to be defeated.

Mr. Howell, of Douglas, did not change his vote from aye to no as he had threat ened with so much vehemence a few minutes

Immediately after the noon recess it was evident that something was astir. The spacin the rear of the senate desks was filled and there was much hurrying to and free and many whispered consultations. Amon and many whispered consultations. Among the men so actively at work were J. H. Edmiston, chairman of the populist state central committee: J. A. Edgerton, secre-tary of the populist national committee Benton Maret, private sccretary to the gov ernor; John Powers, chief of the Bureau o Labor Statistics; P. H. Barry, adjutant gen eral, and John Maher, of the governor staff, and nearly all the deputy state of ficers and many of the clerks and stenogra phers from the state departments. In addition, Representatives Hull of Harlan, Shel don of Dawes and many other members o the other house. These men were either ac tive participants in the whispered discus sions or interested onlookers in the fina struggle over the railroad bill As soon as the senate had been called to order Mr. (Taibot of Lancaster moved that the senate go into committee of the whole to take up the appropriation bills. The motion was rejected.

Mr. Grothan of Howard then moved that the vote by which house roll No. 428, the Board of Transportation bill, was defeated in the foreroom, be reconsidered. Mr. Talbot of Lancaster moved that the motion to reconsider be laid on the table.

This motion prayoked an angry debate which continued until nearly 4 o'clock. Mr. Howell of Donglas raised the first protest. He said he did not know anything about the bill; that it wasn't in his file. He said the bill had been fifriy defeated once, anyway. Mr. Grothan wandered over to Howell's desk and showed him that the bill was in its place in the file. Mr. Howell voted against the motion to table.

Mr. Talbot of Lancaster then asked that the record on the bill be read. He asserted that the bill had not been read at large on three separate days as the constitution requires and he gave notice that he proposed to have the record so show.

The lieutenant governor ruled that the record could not be produced pending the fate of the motion to reconsider. He stated, however, that the record should be read before the bill was placed on its final passage. Another railroad bill taken up by the sen ate was the one introduced by Beal of Cus-ter to legislate the Burlington Volunteer Relief department out of existence. The bill was killed by a vote of 16 to 15. ON APPROPRIATION BILLS.

The senate went into committee of the whole and worked until 6:30 o'clock on the general appropriation bill. Amendments were made by the score, but the bill was Amendments finally completed and recommended Recess was then taken till 8 o'clock. After recess the senate took up the salary appropriation bill.

At 10:30 o'clock the committee had completed less than one-third of the bill. Strong pressure was made to raise nearly every salary included in the bill. The proceed-ings were almost tumultuous, the chairman being unable to keep order. The salary of the governor's private secretary was raised amended in many respects so as to give to $2,000, and several other increases were At 11 o'clock the committee rose, having completed less than half the bill. A number of house rolls were read the first time, among them being the bill to permit counties to vote bonds for the aid of the Transmississippi Exposition. The senate then ad-Journment Resolution. LINCOLN, April 7 .- (Special.)-The first thing in the house this morning was the committee report setting Friday noon as the time for final adjournment. The committee further recommended that no bills shall be passed after Thursday. This report raised a small tempest.

Hull, who was chairman of the house ommittee, said he did not want to see the report adopted, and related the conflict which took place before even this reporould be agreed upon.

Sheldon objected to the whole thing. He called attention to the dilatory action of the senate on the appropriation bills, and said would be impossible to adjust these bills and adjourn at the appointed time. moved that the report be laid over until to morrow at 2:39 o'clock. Clark of Lancaster declared that the time should be fixed now. He didn't care whether it was days or weeks ahead, but both houses would then know what work was before them. Several others spoke on the same line. Sheldon's motion was put and declared

Waite presented a resolution setting forth hat whereas the pop ticket failed of elecion in Lincoln yesterday, a committee should be appointed to recount the ballots cast at such election. The majority not seeing its way clear to success, took no action on the resolution.

Several secate bills were read the first and second times. Bills on third reading being taken up. senate amendments to house roll No. 342 were read. Soderman moved that the house efuse to concur in these amendments, and the motion prevailed. This bill contains a provision fixing the pay of sheriffs for transferring prisoners to the state penitentiary The senate amendment raised this pay to $5 per day and 5 cents mileage. Soderman called attention to the fact that the law already fixed the pay at $3 and mileage, and didn't believe it should be raised. Most of the members agreed with him. After a wrangle as to which bill should ome up first, the journal was referred to, and house roll No. 385, to correct the military code of the state, was read the third time. The bill passed by a vote of 68 to 15. Yelser sent up a lenghty explanation of his negative vote. He said: "We are in more anger from our own armies, if they grow too large, than we are from outside forces."

ROBERTS' BOND BILL PASSES. The next bill taken up by the clerk was touse roll No. 578, to authorize Douglas county to vote $190,000 bonds in aid of the exposition. The clerk had scarcely finished ading the title before Gaylord jumped to his feet, and excitedly demanded to know by what authority the clerk had changed he order of these bill. This, he declared,

Wooster reiterated all that had been said. and produced as evidence a memorandum of the bill numbers as he had taken them when reported by the engrossing committee. Clark of Lancaster said he did not wish o accuse any clerk of tampering with the record, and did not believe any such thing had been done. He asked that the journal be produced and business proceed according to such record. After some further discussion this was done, and house roll No. 578 was read. After the emergency clause had been stricken out the bill passed by the

WHAT IS YOUR TRADE?

Each Trade or Occapation Has It Special Disease.

It is well known among medical men that certain diseases are more readily developed in certain occupations than in others. That occupation has its attendant physical weakness. Engineers, railroad men and similar occupations suffer mostly from kidney troubles and men who are often exposed to the weather suffer from rheumatism. while clerks and professional men, in fact the army of people whose business keep them indoors, are oftentimes great sufferer from piles and constipation. In this con-nection the following letter is of interest t people whose occupation will not allow sufficent outdoor exercise. Mr. A. F. Calhoun, notary public and leweler and watchmaker of Circleville, W Va., writes as follows: I had been a severe sufferer from piles for years and had tried many remedies with but little benefit, when about three years ago I saw the Pyramid Pile Cure advertised and sent for it.

I was badly afflicted when I got them, but after only two applications the piles dis-appeared and from that day to this I have over felt a symptom of the disease I feel that I cannot recommend them too highly to sufferers from piles. The Pyramid Pile Cure is free from cocaine, opium or any mineral poison, abso-lutely safe, pleasant and painless; sold by druggists at 50 cents per package. If there is any constipation the Pyramid Pills should be used with the pile cure. The pills are cents per package.

Any druggist will tell you that the Pyramic is the best known and most successful and popular pile cure ever placed on the market and its reputation as a safe and radical cure has only resulted from the per-sonal recommendation of people who have been cured of this distressing allment. Send to Pyramid Co., Albion, Mich., for valuable little book on cause and cure of noon. Rev. J. C. Galludet of St. Jamee' Episcopal church, of which Mrs. Keene was an active member, conducted the services. The house was filled with the relatives and friends of the decrased and the members of the various social organizations of which she was a member. The floral offerings were numerous and elaborate. The remains were followed to their last resting place in Ridge cemetery by a large number of people.

Snow in Western Nebraska. WALLACE, Neb., April 7 .- (Special Telegram.) Snow has been falling steadily during the past sixteen hours. The greater part melfed as it fell, resulting in more than an irch of water, about as nuch as fell during the week ended April 3. This gives abundance of moisture for present needs and retards farm work. It is still ELWOOD, Neb., April 7 .- (Special Telegram.)—It is snowing here today. There is a vast amount of moisture in the ground, and the weather is wet and cold.

Team May Have Been Stolen. GRETNA, Neb., April 7 .- (Special.) -- Sunday night an unknown man drove west on the bottoms, got one of his horses mired and drowned beside the road. He then left the dead horse, a top buggy and harness and brought the other horse to town, arriving here about daybreak, put his horse in a livery barn and disappeared, and has not been seen since. His continued absence leads to the belief that the property may have been stolen. The man was under 30, with light complexion, heavy build and dressed like a laborer, Consolidate Express Offices. BEATRICE, Neb., April 7.—(Special.)—It is understood here that the Adams, Pacific and United States Express companies' offices in this city will be consolidated in the near future and the present Adams agent, W. H. Mosely, placed in charge of the entire business. It is also understood that G. F. Salle of the United States and Pacific companies will go to Grand Island, where a like consolidation will be effected

Make a Fallure of Alfalfa. SYRACUSE, Neb., April 7 .- (Special.)-There is much activity among the farmers at present, getting ready to put in crops. The ground is in good condition. There is much complaint here about alfalfa; the most of the fields are dead, and it is feared that this oil or climate is not adapted to the raising of that valuable crop.

Sow More Small Grain. GOTHENBURG, Neb., April 7 .- (Special) -It has been so wet in this vicinity for the last two days that most of the farmers have een compelled to quit sowing wheat. The acreage in small grain, repecially wheat, is still increasing, and it will be 30 per cent larger than lest year.

Platte is Rising at Gretan. GRETNA, Neb., April 7 .- (Special.)-The latte river is on the rise here and has overlowed its banks inundating the lower botoms. The roads in that district are next o impassable. The recent rains have retarded farming, and very little small grain s yet in the ground.

Securing a Jury. FALLS CITY, Neb., April 7 .- (Special.)-The Quimby murder case was called to trial in the district court here Tuesday. The first day was occupied in selecting a jury.

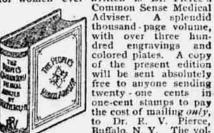

It is a sad fate for a woman to feel that she is being hurried ing hurried on-ward toward despair, bound hand and foot, unable to lift a finger in her own behalf. Many women know that the tortures of weakness and disease which they suffer must lead to inevitable breakdown, perhaps even to insanity and suicide; yet they seem powerless to obtain relief.

The doctor may half-understand the case or he may not understand it at all; ten to one he cannot help it. The regulation stereotyped methods of treatment so detest-Intely useless. It it not safe to trust to the advice or medicine of an uneducated nurse or any incompetent, unscientific person. But what can a woman do?

If any woman who finds herself asking this despairing question, will write stating her case carefully to Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., who is a skilled, educated expert in this special class of diseases, he will send her free of charge sound professional advice by which her trouble may be speedily relieved and if curable perma-nently cured. Thousands of women whom doctors could not help, have been com-pletely cured by Dr. Pierce's Favorite Pre-scription, the most marvelously successful specific for "female complaints" ever in-
